New Enrollments in Southern California

Kaiser Permanente Child Health Plan (KPCHP) received an extremely large number of applications this past January and February and is temporarily suspending new enrollment. Applications received before Tuesday, February 26, 2013 will be processed; applications received between February 27, 2013 through March 26, 2013 will not be processed and will be returned. RMD will pass along additional information as it becomes available.
